

CLIMATE CHANGE & THE CHALLENGES OF DEVELOPMENT SERIES

Just energy transition in the Amazon

Contributions and interdisciplinary dialogue between engineering, and human and social sciences

Speakers

Sustainable Unicamp Campus - Live Lab for Energy Sustainability

Dr Luiz Carlos Pereira da Silva (Unicamp)

Anthropology and Clean, Sustainable Energy in the Amazon: Challenges and Opportunities in the Lower Oiapoque and North Channel Indigenous Lands

Dr Artionka Capiberibe (Unicamp)

Engineering and Electrification in the Amazon: Technical and Human Challenges.

Dr Helder Cruz (UFAM)

Indigenous Science and Climate Justice: Fair Energy Transition in the Amazon.

Arlindo Baré (Unicamp)

Microgrids as Catalysts for Energy Transition in the Amazon: A Case Study of the MERGE Project

Pablo Hernandez (Unicamp)

Interdisciplinary Education for Energy Transition: Guidelines for the Formulation and Implementation of Public Policy in the Amazon.

Dr Danúsia Arantes (Unicamp)

Oxford Partnership and CPTEn Unicamp

Professor Laura Rival (University of Oxford)

WHEN: Friday 17 May, 4:00 pm GMT
WHERE: Seminar Room 1, ODID,
3 Mansfield Road, Oxford OX1 3TB, UK
and online

More info and online registration